

TRANSNATIONAL AND INTERREGIONAL PROGRAMMES OF EUROPEAN TERRITORIAL COOPERATION IN SLOVENIA 2014—2020

INTERREG V: CENTRAL EUROPE, ALPINE SPACE, MEDITERRANEAN, ADRION, DANUBE, INTERREG EUROPE, URBACT*, ESPON*, INTERACT

*National Authority in Slovenia is Ministry of the Environment and Spatial Planning

I. Slovenia in transnational and interregional programmes of European Territorial Cooperation 2014–2020

In the programming period 2014–2020, Slovenia cooperates in five transnational programmes (Alpine Space, Central Europe, Mediterranean, Danube and Adriatic-Ionian Programme - ADRION) and in four interregional programmes (INTERACT III, INTERREG EUROPE, URBACT III, ESPON 2020). There is EUR 1.386 million from European Regional Development Fund (ERDF) available within these programmes in the entire programming period (EUR 872 million for transnational programmes and EUR 514 million for interregional programmes).

Funds are granted by the managing authorities based on transnational and interregional calls for proposals and decisions of monitoring committees, which include representatives of all participating countries. The selection process is supported by national coordination. ERDF co-financing for Slovenian project partners is up to 85% of eligible expenditure and is based on reimbursements, allowing time for national verification of eligible costs, activities and public procurement procedures. ERDF funds are transferred directly to the lead partners, which in turn make transfers to the project partners.

All managing authorities and other joint structures of transnational and interregional programmes are located outside Slovenia. The Government Office for Development and European Cohesion Policy acts as National Authority and National Control. In case of URBACT III and ESPON 2020, these roles are performed by the Ministry of the Environment and Spatial Planning. The Ministry of Finance – the Budget Supervision Office is responsible for audit tasks within transnational Groups of Auditors.

II. Context and specifics of European Territorial Cooperation programmes

All cooperation programmes shall support the implementation of the Europe 2020 Strategy (smart, sustainable and inclusive growth) and territorial cohesion of the EU, as expressed through the Territorial Agenda 2020 aiming at:

- › coherent regional development;
- › use of endogenous territorial potentials;
- › development of the competitiveness and attractiveness of regions.

The objectives are further elaborated in strategies of smart specialisation and other strategic documents.

The new cohesion policy promotes the following:

- › concentration on a limited number of priorities for a greater impact on territories;
- › cross-sectoral and multi-level cooperation between relevant actors within a policy field;
- › coordination of relevant actors, as well as coordination between the programmes and funds;
- › result-oriented and place-based approach;
- › wherever relevant under the frameworks of macro-regional strategies.

III.

Transnational programmes and projects

Transnational projects are closely related to public policies and strategies and shall not support large investments, mere studies or mere networking. Their role is to develop, test and implement European, macro-regional and national development policies and strategies in a transnational context, using a place-based approach. Transnational projects take part in policy formulation process and policy maturation phase as a preparation for broad implementation of a certain policy. Therefore the main types of projects cover strategic policy development, exploration or piloting. The general aim of programmes is to develop institutional capacities of the public sector, taking into consideration the needs of the target groups, and the development of multisectoral and multilevel solutions in the programme areas. Even when the private sector is involved, the cooperation projects should focus on a public or general interest.

Thematic focus

Out of EUR 872 million ERDF funds under transnational programmes, EUR 300 million ERDF are dedicated to the topics of the environment, resources and risk management; EUR 252 million to the enhancement of the framework conditions for innovation; EUR 208 million for transport and energy; EUR 62 million are dedicated to the governance in relation with macro-regional strategies.

Types of outputs

All transnational programmes strive to produce the following types of outputs:

- › joint strategies and action plans,
- › transnational methodologies and management tools,
- › joint management structures and governance systems,
- › preparation of transnational investments, which shall be financed later by other sources,
- › pilot activities.

What is a good transnational project?

A good cooperation project should:

- › be result oriented;
- › be relevant in relation to the targeted programme specific objective;
- › show relevance in relation to territorial challenges and needs of the participating regions;
- › show relevance to the existing policy framework (at EU, national, regional levels) applicable for the thematic scope of the project;
- › have specific project objectives, expected results and outputs clearly defined and consistent;
- › clearly demonstrate the importance and added value of the transnational cooperation approach to the topic addressed;
- › contribute to macro-regional strategies;
- › integrate horizontal principles (i.e. sustainable development, environment, equality);
- › go beyond existing practice in the sector and/or participating regions;
- › if applicable, build on available knowledge and make use of synergies with other projects or initiatives;
- › have suitable approach and methodology to obtain the intended outputs and results;
- › demonstrate sustainability and transferability of its outputs and results.

Relevant transnational partnership should:

- › have a lead applicant with sufficient experience and capacity to manage a transnational cooperation project;
- › be suitable and include sufficient competences/expertise to implement the planned activities and to achieve the expected results;
- › reflect the transnational cooperation approach and have all partners actively involved to jointly implement the foreseen activities;
- › involve all relevant stakeholders and the users of project outputs from the early stages of project preparation.

IV. Interregional programmes

Interregional programmes (INTERREG EUROPE, URBACT III, ESPON 2020, INTERACT III) are aimed at reinforcing the effectiveness of cohesion policy by encouraging exchange of experience between regions on thematic objectives and urban development, including urban-rural linkages, to improve the implementation of territorial cooperation programmes and actions as well as promoting analyses of development trends in the area of territorial cohesion through studies, data collection and other measures.

INTERREG EUROPE

To reinforce the effectiveness of cohesion policy, the INTERREG EUROPE programme promotes exchange of experience on thematic objectives among partners throughout the Union on the identification and dissemination of good practice with a view to its transfer principally to operational programmes under the Investment for Growth and Jobs goal but also, where relevant, to programmes under European Territorial Cooperation (ETC) goal. This will be done via the support and facilitation of policy learning, sharing of knowledge and transfer of good practices between regional and local authorities and other actors of regional relevance.

In order to facilitate an ongoing EU-wide policy learning and capitalisation of good practices, 'policy learning platforms' will be created for different thematic policy fields. These platforms will be active throughout the duration of the programme to provide on a regular basis services and support to the regions of Europe with the intention to inform and enhance the definition and implementation of their regional policies, and primarily their programmes for Growth and Jobs and ETC.

In support of the objective of exchanging experience and sharing practices to prepare their implementation in regional policies, the programme will support and fund Interregional Cooperation Projects among relevant partnerships of regional actors. The purpose of these projects will be to induce policy learning and to prepare the implementation of good practices in the participating regions through an action plan, in particular through their respective programmes for Investment for Growth and Jobs and where relevant ETC.

As to INTERREG EUROPE, out of EUR 337 million ERDF funds almost EUR 169 million are devoted to fostering innovativeness as well as to enhancing the competitiveness of SMEs, over EUR 84 million are dedicated to the low carbon economy and over EUR 84 million are earmarked to be spent on environment and resource efficiency.

URBACT III

URBACT III acts as a European exchange and learning programme promoting sustainable urban development. It facilitates the sharing of knowledge and good practice between cities and other levels of government in order to promote integrated sustainable development and improve the effectiveness of regional and cohesion policy. In doing this URBACT III contributes to the Europe 2020 goals by providing a mechanism for stakeholders involved in developing and implementing urban policy to develop their knowledge and skills. The new knowledge and skills acquired from participation in the URBACT III programme will contribute to stronger and more vibrant European cities and help tackle a range of emerging urban issues linked to smart, sustainable and inclusive growth (the three Europe 2020 priorities).

ESPON 2020

The ESPON programme aims at promoting and fostering a European territorial dimension in development and cooperation by providing evidence, knowledge transfer and policy learning to public authorities and other policy actors at all levels. The ESPON programme provides significant pan-European territorial evidence and research base for informed policy making across the EU territory and support regions and cities to develop place-based responses to the Europe 2020 challenges of smart, sustainable and inclusive growth.

Types of outputs:

- › comparable information and evidence on territorial potentials and challenges,
- › cross-thematic applied research for different territorial policy challenges,
- › territorial impact studies of EU policies,
- › targeted analyses on demand from different stakeholders,
- › tools for benchmarking and territorial analyses,
- › publications on territorial evidences, events and workshops.

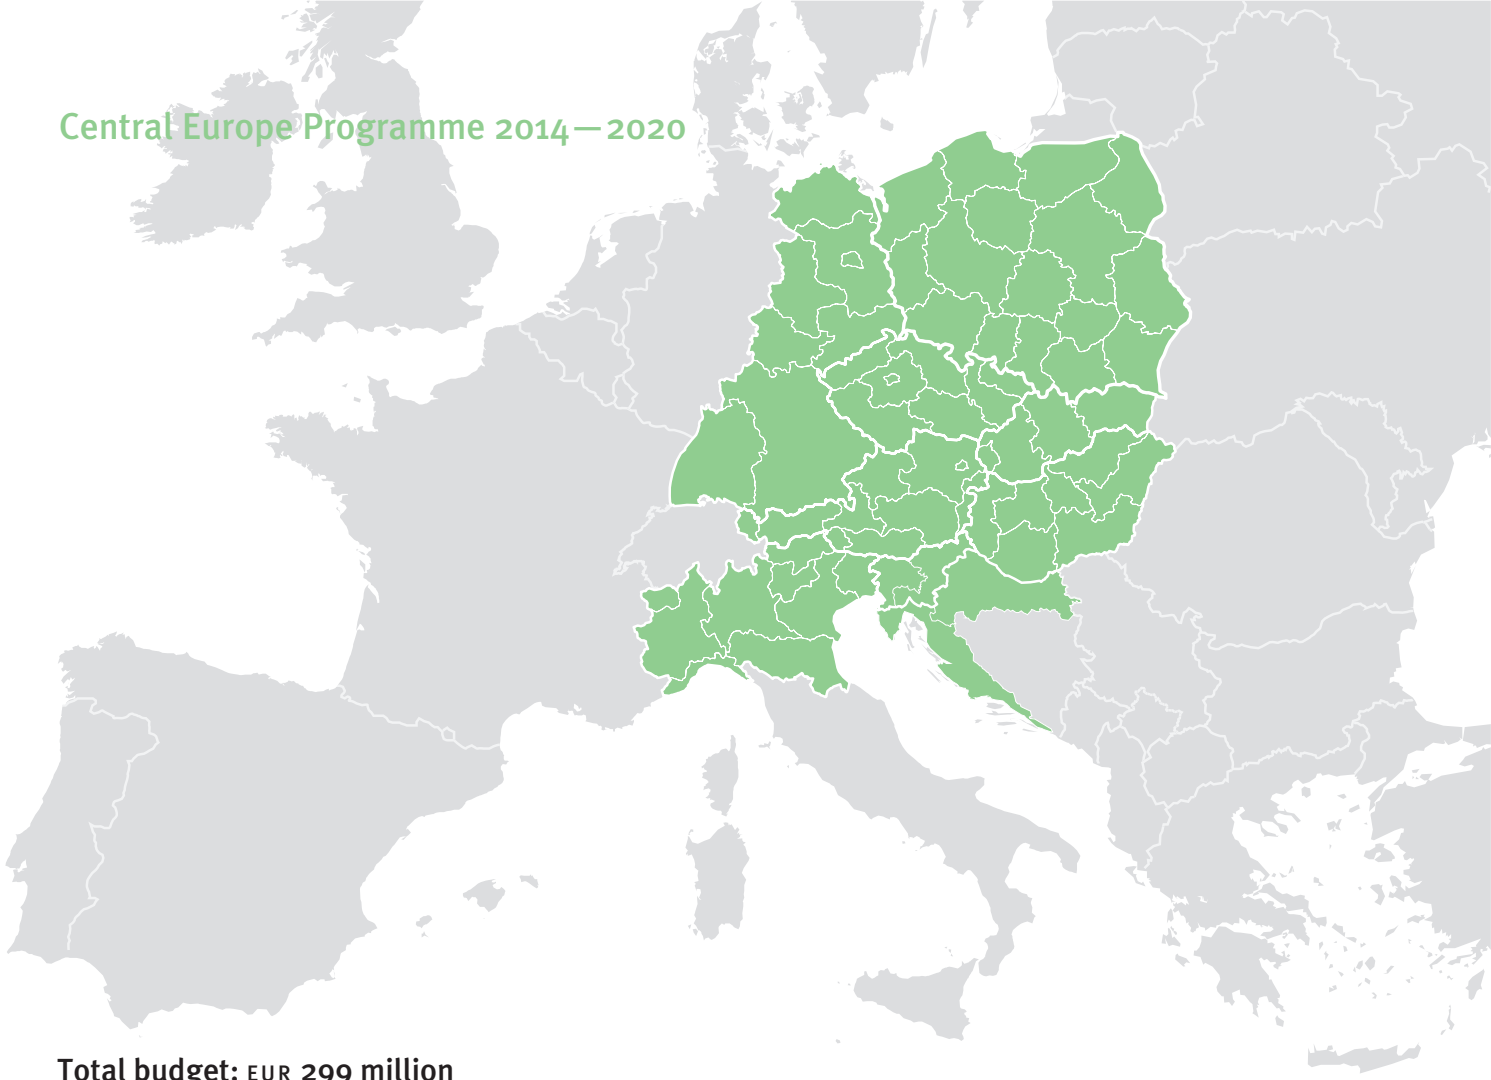

INTERACT III

The overall objective of INTERACT III is to exchange experience, identify and transfer practices and innovative approaches in implementing territorial cooperation. INTERACT III provides services targeting mainly the bodies responsible for managing ETC programmes in order to enhance their management and control capacity. No funding is awarded through grants to projects, therefore this programme is not dealt with in this publication. Nevertheless, project partners of all transnational and interregional programmes will indirectly benefit from these services, especially through harmonisation and simplification tools, as end users.
